JUDGING

The American System of Judging is used in the Home Arts building/ Culinary Kitchen, unless otherwise stated. The judging process ranks exhibits against one another and gives awards to first place, secont place, etc. Judges shall avoid unnecessary fraternization wiith exhibitors. No person shall be allowed, under any circumstances, to interfere with the judge, or judges, during their adjudications, or with the Fair's staff, or to offer any criticisim of any ehxibit of another. Violators of this rule shall be excluded immedately from the judging area. No judging information will be given by telephone, email or mail. The judges may award first, second, third place, etc., according to merit. If without merit, the judges shall make no award under any circumstances. This rule applies whether there are one or more exhibits in the class. The judges decisions shall be final.

DISPLAY POLICY

The LA County Fair reserves the right to limit items for display to the facilities available. All award-winning entries will be on display. The Fair assumes total design control over the presentation of exhibits. The design staff shall determine location and placement of exhibits. No exhibit changes will be made after the items are on display.

All reasonable care will be taken in handling and displaying exhibits, but the LA County Fair assumes no responsibility for loss or damage whatsoever the cause. Submitting an exhibit implies acceptance of this rule. If insurance is desired, the exhibitor must carry it.

ADULT DIVISION

BAKED FOODS & CONFECTIONS ENTRY RULES

1. Entry form must be legible and complete with fees in order to be accepted.
2. There are no refunds of entry fee. See competition or contest for individual entry fee.
3. Receipt of entry form will not be acknowledged. Please include entry fee with the entry form. Entry forms received without the entry fee will be returned.
4. Items will be judged in Division and Class entered by exhibitors. It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to correctly classify their items. Only items listed and described on entry form will be accepted for judging.
5. Limit of one entry per class (to enter more in one class would be, in effect, competing against oneself).
6. Adult amateurs only (18 years of age and older) unless otherwise stated.
7. Entries accepted from INDIVIDUALS ONLY.
8. Amateur- A person who engages in an event or activity as a pastime rather than a profession. Instructors, professionals, or those who make a practice of selling their handicraft are not eligible to enter for competition. Teachers, judges, professional cooks, caterers, chefs, cake decorators, or those who commercialize their work are not eligible in the Baked Foods and Confections competitions.
9. No person shall be an exhibitor or sign the entry form as an agent at the LA County Fair in any department if they are a manager, director, association member, department head, or paid employee.
10. The Los Angeles County Fair Association reserves the right to amend and add to these rules and empowers the Executive Committee with the final and absolute right to interpret all rules and regulations and arbitrarily settle and determine all matters, questions and differences in regard thereto.
11. The LA County Fair pays premiums ONLY in those classes specifically listed. Premium checks will be mailed within six (6) weeks following the close of the LA County Fair. The LA County Fair is not responsible for redemption of premiums.
12. Any exhibitor who wins over $600.00 dollars or more in premiums or prizes must complete a W-9 form before checks are distributed in compliance with IRS regulations. A 1099 MISC will be issued to those exhibitors.
13. Baked Foods & Confections ribbons will be mailed to exhibitors by July 31st.
14. Entries must be the work of the exhibitor in whose name they were entered.
15. A typed or computer printed measured ingredients list on an 8 ½" x 11" sheet including name, address, phone number, division, and class number is required with every entry (any entry that arrives without the required measured ingredients list and information will NOT be accepted for judging). The measured ingredients list is due with item on "take-in" day. Do not mail the measured ingredients list with payment and entry form.

16. All measured ingredients lists submitted will become the property of the Los Angeles County Fair Association and may be published, reproduced, developed, and sold by the Los Angeles County Fair Association. When appropriate, credit will be given to the originator of the measured ingredients list.
17. Deliver cakes on wax paper and cardboard, which should extend slightly beyond base of cake. DO NOT USE CHINA OR GLASS PLATES AS THESE ITEMS WILL NOT BE RETURNED. If board is used as a foundation for decorated cake, have hole in center front to attach identification tag. Cake boxes are also acceptable.
18. Deliver all cookies, breads, confections etc. on paper plates, in zip top bags, or wrapped in a plastic wrap or foil depending on your entry. Cake or pastry boxes are also acceptable. Do not bring your entry in Tupperware or on plates, as we will not be responsible for the return of those items.
19. Baked Foods must be homemade (no mixes, unless otherwise specified), named, original, unpublished and the sole property of entrant.
20. Cakes will not be refrigerated. Therefore items that require refrigeration (i.e. fresh fruit or cheesecake) will not be accepted for judging; these items will be disqualified.
21. Entries made with a bread machine are unacceptable unless otherwise specified.
22. ALL BAKED FOODS will become the property of the LA County Fair, and will not be returned, no exceptions.
23. NO baked items will be shipped back to exhibitor.
24. The LA County Fair reserves the right to reject anything that is entered into a contest or competition at the Fair that may be objectionable, unsuitable, requires more space than can be given, or is in conflict with exhibit requirements
