

GET YOUR ENTRIES IN NOW FOR THE LA COUNTY FAIR HOME ARTS, CULINARY COMPETITIONS

POMONA, CA (Jan. 31, 2024) – What is better than going to the LA County Fair? Going to the Fair and discovering that you’ve won a blue ribbon! The Fair is seeking entries to its Home Arts and Culinary competitions from both adults and youth.

Drop the phone, tablet or laptop and get your hands to creating – whether it’s baking a pie from an old family recipe, sewing a quilt or building the most amazing LEGO® creation, the Fair has a competition for everyone. Enter soon – deadline for all online Home Arts entries and the Preserved Food category in Culinary is Feb. 15. Drop-off for all Home Arts and Preserved Food entries is March 2, at the fairgrounds.

For Baked Food & Confections, whose contests include Mocktails, Charcuterie and the live BBQ, online entries are due March 28. Delivery of these entries is April 22. Some competitions and contests do win cash prizes.

The Home Arts youth division includes a section for Girl and Boy Scout troops. Scouts can enter as a troop or individually.

Horticulture and livestock competitions are also accepting entries.

Fair competitions are a mainstay of county fairs and one of the experiences that mesh nostalgia, tradition and current trends together. And, winning a blue ribbon is very Instagrammable!

For a complete list of all competitions, visit www.lacountyfair.com/competitions.

Media contact:

Renee Hernandez
(909) 865-4261
hernandez@fairplex.com